Penitentiary blackmail. One prisoner asked a woman to not spread defamatory images on social networks in which she appears in intimate hypostases.

Officers of the North Investment Directorate of the INI, in common with the police and prosecutors in Drochia, with the support of the employees of the Penitentiary no.2 Lipcani, stopped the blackmail sharing who asked for 1,000 euros from a woman, in order not to publish its intimate images on the social networks. Drochia would have discussed on applications, with an unknown man, who would have promised to create a family together. During this time, the individual obtained from the woman more photo and video images in intimate hypostases. Moreover, he also gave him a deadline to send the money involving a woman in this scheme. lei. Culpable as a crime risks from 7 to 10 years in prison, with a fine from 92 500 to 117 500 lei.